

In yesterday's email about the COVID-19 contingency plan for the safety of our employees and our plan to continue to service our clients' needs, we neglected to include our email addresses. Yikes! What good is a plan if you can't reach us?

Our telephone number is 315-222-7148 and your calls will be answered by a service team member and directed to the appropriate financial advisor should our office close for quarantine. Our email addresses are:
